Notice To All Members

You were advised in a mailing sent along with the October 2011 statement and newsletter that Midwest Credit Union was conducting its elections by mail ballot, and that the nomination for Director would remain open until December 16, 2011.

The Nominating Committee placed the name of the following incumbent in nomination:

 Terri Zittel

With the expiration of the time period in which nominations could be accepted, and there being no additional candidates placed in nomination, the above named nominee is hereby declared Director of Midwest Credit Union. Congratulations to Terri!

New Member Promotion Winner Announced

Thank you to all that joined our credit union during the promotion. Congratulations to Nathan Bogenschuetz for winning the $25 BP Gas Card. Even though the promotion for the Gift Card has ended, you can still receive $5.00 in your account for bringing in a new member, the new member will also receive $5.00. We encourage all members to share all that that Midwest Credit Union has to offer with their family and friends!

Pumpkins Sold

Thanks to all that purchased Pumpkins for Cystic Fibrosis. We were able raise $58.00 for the foundation!

Internal Audit

In compliance with our bylaws, an audit of the records of Midwest Credit Union is done annually. Please review your enclosed statement carefully, and compare the figures with your records. If the balance agrees with yours, you do not need to do anything. However, if the balances do NOT agree with your records, please report the differences within 14 days to the attention of:
